

WHAT WE DO...

- ◆ Discuss critical issues in college admissions
- ◆ Empowers school counselors by building skills for assisting students and families
- ◆ Promote collegial collaboration on both sides of the desk
- ◆ Encourage informal decision making on significant topics

2008 CLINIC TOPIC
CHALLENGE & SUPPORT – PROMOTING A STUDENT-CENTERED PROCESS

CONTACT FOR EVENT:
Terry O'Sullivan
914.248.2381

2008 CLINIC TOPIC

CHALLENGE & SUPPORT – PROMOTING A STUDENT-CENTERED PROCESS

WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 2008 – COLLEGE CLINIC (THE TAPPAN HILL MANSION, TARRYTOWN, NY)

THEME: "CHALLENGE & SUPPORT- PROMOTING A STUDENT-CENTERED PROCESS"

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: DR. WILLIAM R. FITZSIMMONS (HARVARD UNIVERSITY)
MABEL FREEMAN (OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY)

WORKSHOPS: "THE APPLICANT: HEARING THEIR VOICES AND CHARTING THEIR PATHS"
"THE APPLICATION: MAKING THE COMMON UNCOMMON"

CHALLENGE & SUPPORT
PROMOTING A STUDENT-CENTERED PROCESS

PAST CLINIC TOPICS:

- 2007 – Bridging the Divide: Issues Facing the Next College Generation
- 2006 – Higher Education: STRESS – The High Price of Success
- 2005 – Two Americas – Implication for Higher Education
- 2004 – Equity, Access & College Admissions: The Role of Economics
- 2003 – Media Influence in the College Admissions Process
- 2002 – The Challenges of College Admissions in a Changing World
- 2001 – The Changing Landscape of College Admissions
- 2000 – Critical Crossroads...The Dialogue Continues
- 1999 – Provocative Issues in College Admissions
- 1998 – The Future of Education
- 1997 – College Admissions in the Nineties: Money Drives the Process
- 1996 – Educational Access To All: At What Price?
- 1995 – Walking the Walk – Talking the Talk – Working Toward a Common Language

