

Name: _____ Date: _____

My Personal Connections

Good readers make personal connections to a story. It helps them understand how the characters feel and makes them understand the book better!

Title: _____ Author: _____

Pick a part in the story that reminds you of something in your life. Write about that part in the story.

In the story :

Now write about something in your life that reminds you of this part of the story.

In my life:
